Rights Transfer Agreement

In this Rights Transfer Agreement, the term “Entrant” is the parent or guardian of the Artist who is submitting artwork for the Commercial Crew Program (“CCP”) Calendar Challenge (“Challenge”) on behalf of the Artist, and who enters this Rights Transfer Agreement on both the Entrant’s and the Artist’s behalves.

By entering the Challenge and in consideration of the possibility of being eligible for the use of Artist’s artwork in future CCP Calendar, the undersigned Entrant hereby—

1. transfers to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (“NASA”) in perpetuity all rights (including but not limited to all copyright and all other intellectual property rights) in all artwork the Entrant submits to NASA for this Challenge, and in all drafts of the artwork even if not submitted to NASA, all of which will become NASA’s sole and exclusive property for any and all uses and purposes, even if (a) prepared before the Entrant entered the Challenge and agreed to this Rights Transfer Agreement or (b) not ultimately used by NASA (this means that the Entrant will relinquish and not retain any rights at all in the artwork submitted or drafts, and without specific written permission will not be able to use or license or allow others to use them (or artwork substantially similar to them), display them on a web site, or use or license an unused version or draft of a submitted artwork in any manner, even if it existed before the Entrant entered the Challenge or agreed to this Rights Transfer Agreement).
2. agrees that, if NASA requires the Entrant to prepare and submit manually executed Rights Transfer Agreements, the Entrant must deliver them on the schedule and as additionally directed by NASA to remain eligible in the Challenge. The Entrant acknowledges that NASA has the right to disqualify entrants who fail to properly sign and timely return required Rights Transfer Agreements.
3. agrees to waive and agree not to enforce any “moral rights,” such as rights of attribution and integrity, in the artwork the Entrant submits (and in their drafts) and as they may be revised by NASA for the various purposes contemplated by the Challenge, and waives and acknowledges that the Entrant will not be entitled to inspect or approve any design, revision, final design, finished product, or any other use of any submitted artwork, including but not limited to advertising, marketing, promotional materials or merchandising products or materials.
4. warrants that the Artist alone created the artwork the Entrant submits, all of which are entirely original, not previously published and not copied in whole or in part from other works (including public domain works, stock house works or “clip art”); and if, in spite of the foregoing, for any reason the Artist’s artwork does contain or is based on third-party intellectual property (such as a photograph) or affect third-party rights (such as an individual’s name or likeness), before submitting the artwork the Entrant has (without assistance, payment, or prompting from NASA) obtained all permissions necessary to ensure that NASA will own all rights in the artwork, and any drafts, without restriction or any further action so as to, among other things, allow NASA to own, use and allow others (such as licensees) to use or modify and use the artwork and any derivatives in any manner in all media and markets now known or hereafter developed or discovered, worldwide, for commercial or other purposes in perpetuity without restriction, approvals, attribution, permissions or compensation.

5. indemnifies and holds harmless the United States Government against any claims arising from any one or more of the following: breach of the terms of, or failure to provide accurate information on, any one or more Parental/Legal Guardian Consent Forms or Rights Transfer Agreements the Entrant submits; or infringement of copyright or other third-party rights related to any one or more artworks the Entrant submits, their sources, or the use of such artwork or sources.

6. consents to the collection and use of the personal information of both the Entrant and the Artist's personal information (such as name, likeness, school grade, home town, other biographical material and other identifying characteristics) for purposes such as identity verification and public posting of artwork on the websites of NASA and with publicity and promotion of the Challenge, and NASA programs generally.

7. agrees to be responsible for all expenses of participation in the Challenge, including but not limited to all materials, postage, telephone, internet, and travel (other than those expenses of official travel to NASA facilities or other locations for which NASA may expressly and in advance directly notify and invite the Entrant and agrees to bear expenses).

8. releases and holds harmless the United States Government (including but not limited to NASA) and its contractors, any other entities or organizations performing services in connection with the Challenge, and the respective past and present officers, directors, employees, contractors, agents, successors and assigns of all of the foregoing, from and against any and all claims, losses, expenses and liabilities (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of or relating to the Entrant's participation in the Challenge (including but not limited to all travel, promotion and publicity) or acceptance, use or misuse of any prize.
